

Teachers: Keith & Deb Garner and Greg & Teresa Lyon - Room 201 - Revive

Young single adults between the ages of 18 and 30 are welcomed into this class. The class will learn to experience how to Revive their relationship with God, connect with each other and serve the church.

Keith & Deb Garner are the parents of two young adults. Deb was saved at an early age. Sunday School and youth leaders were influential in her life. Keith is the Administrator at Lititz Area Mennonite School. At the age of 21, he saw Jesus in the lives of his co-workers, and he accepted Christ. They are excited that the Lord has called them to connect with this age group and grow together in Jesus Christ.

Greg & Teresa Lyon are privileged to have been raised with a Christian heritage. They have been married for 13 years and have four boys ages 4 to 11. Their experience includes youth ministry, working with the homeless, and teaching in the public school system. As co-teachers, they hope to provide a caring, sharing atmosphere for people desiring to build relationships with one another and to grow in their walk with Christ.

Teachers: Dr. Joe & Nina Kim and Jerry & Audrey Kreider – Room 205 - Journey

As young couples, ages 18-35, you have embarked on a new Journey in life. While on this Journey, many challenges are presented.

Joe and Nina Kim are equipped to give this class guidance in life skills and personal spiritual development. They are the parents of four children. Dr. Joe received his Ph.D. from Dallas Theological Seminary and is the Professor of Systematic Theology at Lancaster Bible College. He has taught in a Christian high school and also has an engineering degree. His interests are watching football, cooking, and ship modeling. Nina finished her advanced Master's degree in Physical Therapy and is certified as a Geriatric Clinical Specialist. She is employed at Manor Care. In the past she and Joe have co-taught a marriage and family Sunday School class. Nina, has been active in AWANA. Gardening, reading, and quilting are the areas that bring relaxation to her.

Jerry and Audrey Kreider recently completed the FBFC Teacher Training Course. Coming from Christian homes, they realized the value of Sunday School in their lives. Because of those experiences, they developed a passion to teach adults. Jerry and Audrey have been married for 26 years and have four daughters, two son-in-laws and one precious granddaughter. Both are store owners in Boothwyn PA. Jerry operates a pet store while Audrey has a boutique. Their interests include travel, history, family and evangelism. They enthusiastically have accepted the challenge of guiding young couples in a Christ-centered daily walk.

Teachers: Doug Bollman and Bob Wall – Room 200 – King's Buffet

For the 31-45 age group, there is a feast awaiting you! Each week spiritual food is offered on the menu to enhance your spiritual growth and to flex your spiritual muscles.

Doug Bollman is a graduate of Lancaster Bible College with a Bachelors Degree in Bible. Teaching is his passion. He has taught in the Junior and Senior High Departments and for the last several years in the Adult Department. He currently serves on the elder board and is involved with AWANA and the Praise Team. Doug loves the Lord and His Word, and teaching is the joy of his life.

Bob Wall is always on top of things. Why? He owns his own roofing company. He is married to Kim and they have 3 children. Bob became a believer about 30 years ago as a result of a televised Billy Graham crusade. Godly grandparents and faithful Sunday School teachers played an important role in his life. He is a graduate of Lancaster Bible College and has taught in both our Senior High and Adult Departments. Bob has been involved in approximately 20 short term mission and urban outreach opportunities. Both he and Doug are eager to share the meat of God's Word with you as a class.

Teacher: Brian Trimble – Room 203 – The Middle Ages

This age group between 46 and 65 is often referenced as the 'sandwich group'. In the Middle Ages, many times you are caught in the middle – between grown children in college and aging parents. It is during this time, that re-grouping of goals and other challenges in daily living are revised. The Middle Ages is a class that offers Biblical instruction, caring and loving support, and friendship.

Brian Trimble is the father of 2 teenagers. He attended Millersville State University. Eleven years ago he became a member of FBFC and has served the Lord by teaching and singing in the choir. Currently, he is serving on our deacon board. In his spare time, he likes to relax by playing golf or board and card games. He has a passion for studying God's Word and sharing it with others.

Teacher: Dick Matthews – Room 100 – The Voyagers

If you are 66 or older, join The Voyagers. Caleb was in this age bracket when he proclaimed, "Give me the mountain." This age group is so vital to the church body because of their wisdom of life experiences and their ability to serve in ministries. Yet spiritual growth is still an expectation so that they "finish the race" well.

Dick Matthews is a seasoned Sunday School teacher with FBFC. Not only has he spent 50 years in teaching, but has served on the elder board and is currently the Director of Discipleship. He has studied Greek at Lancaster Bible College and continues to faithfully study the Word of God. He is married to Betty and has two married children who are also faithfully serving the Lord. Do not hesitate to join The Voyagers. You will spend a wonderful time studying the Word of God together.

Teachers: Pastor Greg & Karen Uhrich and Dr. Mark & Diane Menga Room 203 – The Foundation

The age group, 46-65, is the largest group in the church and is often under great stress from various life issues. The purpose of this class is to ensure that each member has a solid Foundation in the Scriptures to successfully deal with all the complexities of life.

Greg and Karen Uhrich have been married for 40 years and have two married children and four grandchildren. Greg has been in the Ministry since 1989 and has been the Pastor of Administration at FBFC since 2001. Karen is an RN and is employed at Lancaster General Hospital as Manager of the Noninvasive Cardiology Department. Karen is also the Director of Children's Ministries at FBFC. Both Greg and Karen have a deep desire to see Christians grow in their knowledge of the Scriptures.

Dr. Mark Menga is Associate Dean for Adult Continuing Education at Lancaster Bible College specifically working with the Degree Completion and Continuing Education programs. Understanding the media (especially movies) and how it affects Christianity are some of Mark's passions. Diane and Mark were married in 2008. She is Director for the TESOL Department at Lancaster Bible College. Educating international cross-cultural individuals in English and sharing the Gospel with them is her passion. Together they enjoy serving the students from Lancaster Bible College in their home for fellowship and discipleship. They would also like to experience time overseas jointly in teaching and ministry opportunities. Their areas of expertise will be utilized as they co-teach in this class and continue to build a strong Foundation.

Teachers: Dave & Nona Gehman and Nate Snell – Room 200 – Venture in Faith

Together as a mixed age group, we will Venture in Faith, in our walk as individuals and as a class. Class participation and interaction is encouraged. Part of the Venture in Faith is digging deeper into the Word of God for personal growth.

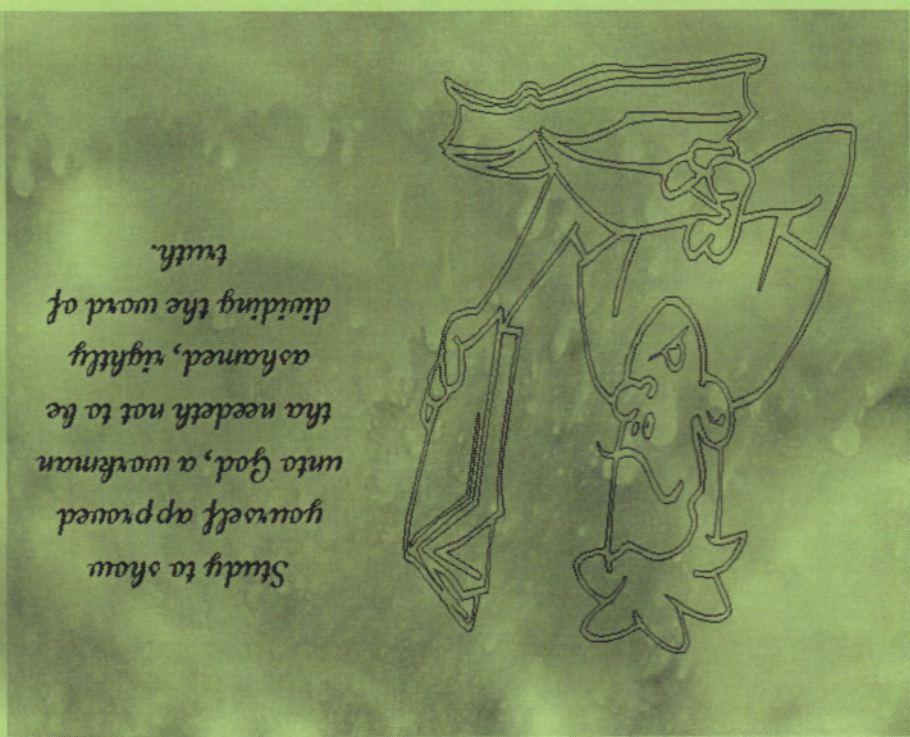

Nate Snell attended Philadelphia College of the Bible and later transferred and graduated from Lancaster Bible College. He tapped into the knowledge base from great teachers, like Gordon Ceperly, John Cawood, Bob Willey, and Earl Osborne. The passion of these men to pursue Biblical truth was caught by Nate, and he is eager to share with others. He also brings a wealth of historical information into his teaching style. Nate has served our country in the Army. He is married to Crystal.

Dave and Nona Gehman have pledged their lives to serve the Lord in a variety of areas. Most of their time is spent in mentoring, counseling, and teaching. Dave has been involved with many Christian Education ministries. He has taught Sunday school from the elementary level to adult. Dave & Nona have graduated from LBC Evening School and continue honing their skills through workshops and research. Presently they are the Adult Sunday School Department Coordinators for FBFC. Join us in your Venture in Faith.
