[TEXT OF YOUR LETTER]

I am currently an Alberstons employee. In fact, the year 2004 represents my 30th anniversary since being hired by Albertsons in 1974. Journey level union workers like me earn $19.084 for every hour worked. I know that hourly rate seems excessive to many in our society. However, let's put this hourly rate in perspective. The CEO of my company (Larry Johnson) earned $12.25 million in salary, bonuses, and other compensation for the year 2002. The President of UFCW 588 (Jack Loveall) earned nearly $400,000 for the year 2002. Do the math. It doesn't take a masters degree to figure out how much these two individuals earn in an hour, working inside their plush offices, hoping that I will continue to give my 150% at the store so they can continue to enjoy their lavish lifestyles that is purchased with their annual high salaries. Yet, it is unlikely that either Larry Johnson or Jack Loveall could tell you what a "303" size "can" is inside a grocery store.

In the eyes of the "Wal-Marts" of this world, I am an unskilled, uneducated, and overpaid worker. In the eyes of "fairness", I deserve every penny of that $19.084 an hour....and more!
Frank S. Nordby, Sacramento
