Dear Pastor Ray,

I never heard back from Bill Coyne since my first letter to him on July 18th, 2008. I don't know if he ever received it so I have mailed that letter and the enclosed letter to him and I stated once again in it that I was going to carbon copy it to you.

I also carbon copied it to others and I want to explain that to you as well.

To Sherwood because he was the Pastor who knows of this story and suggested that I write to Bill in the first place to seek for a Christian resolve to a very unfortunate family matter.

To Glen and Rick Cole and Louis Neely because these three men somehow and somehow were convinced by Raley's people that the story about my father was not the true story. And because they believed Raley's over the truth they also entangled themselves into this web of deception making false accusations about my father and my family and none of these men have ever to my knowledge repented of their ignorant deeds. All three of them suggested that we should stop seeking the truth in this matter and "get on with our lives".

Pastor Chuck Smith will get a copy because Louis Neely's involvement in this matter furthered the lies of Raley's. Warehouse Ministries is under the Calvary Chapel family and Louis Neely needs to be held accountable for his actions and words.

I know all this information comes as a surprise to you, but so far no one in leadership in Sacramento's Christian community wants to take a stand for truth and do the right thing. I believe that if a person doesn't do the right thing then they will end up doing the wrong thing.

My family(the family of Charles Nordby) are more than happy to explain the story in its entirety to anyone who disputes what our dad said that he did. There is a $100,000 reward offered for any person who can disprove it. It can't be done.

This is an incredible story of faith and gets greater all the time. Being a Christian is not easy, but it is always an adventure. The Great Adventure.

Thank you for reading it.

Sincerely,

Jack Nordby
