▶ About TGC Global

Founded in 1999, TGC Global Inc. is a premier consulting and information technology services firm focused on achieving business results through the application of state-of-the-art technology solutions. Trusted and highly skilled TGC consultants partner with Global 2000 companies to deliver custom enterprise solutions that incorporate superior technologies and maximize return on IT investments.

TGC Global is headquartered in New York City with world wide support capabilities throughout Europe, Asia, Africa, and North America.

▶ Corporate Development Services

TGC consultants look outside the traditional boundaries of IT and business structures to help organizations capitalize on technology solutions, and monetize existing assets and intellectual property. By focusing strategically on how new technologies can be utilized in a smart, competitive, and fiscally sound manner, TGC enables clients to implement business solutions successfully and gain the competitive edge needed to maintain or develop industry leadership.

▶ Technology Solutions

Skilled TGC engineers offer the knowledge that is necessary for the development and enhancement of your existing technical infrastructure, and are equipped to handle all aspects of a project, from design to implementation. TGC delivers custom enterprise solutions incorporating superior technology from leading vendors, with continued research on new and improved information technologies to benefit our client base.

▶ Strategic Sourcing

Utilize TGC as an extension of your organization where technical or business expertise is needed. Complement your internal staff with access to our team of high-level consulting engineers and business analysts, and access to state-of-the-art tools and methodologies. TGC will maximize resources for faster speed to market, quicker deployment, and measurable results.

"TGC delivers cutting edge technology solutions and services that make a significant, positive impact within the business organizations of our valued customers. This strategic application of state-of-the-art technologies allows us to achieve greater business efficiency and competitiveness for our clients, ensuring long-term success."
