Project # A16180-20482-57

Rev. Carl M. Hanson and his wife Chen Hsi Li met during Pastor Hanson's first mission experience during 1986 through 1991, when he served as a lay missionary with the overseas Volunteer Youth Ministry program in Taiwan. Pastor Hanson is a native Iowan and went to school at Mount Olive Lutheran School in Des Moines, Iowa. After completing his studies at Iowa State University with a BS in Physics and Math in 1985, he then left for Taiwan, where his missionary journey began. Fully understanding that the Lord was calling him in a special way Pastor Hanson enrolled at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri in 1991. Chen Hsi graduated from Fu-Jen University, Taipei, with a BS in Nutrition and food Science in 1989. In 1997 the board for Mission Services called these special missionaries to evangelistic work in Hong Kong, where they will be teaching, witnessing, leading Bible Studies and Sunday Schools, as well as training and equipping leaders of the church. They would ask for your prayers and your support that God would grant them strength, wisdom and courage to witness boldly to the Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to the people of Hong Kong.
