Coral Rose
serving in South Africa and Africa

Coral Rose will serve as a missionary in South Africa, filling the specialized role of regional business manager for Africa. God has called her to use her business and travel experience as well as her love of different cultures to work with the national church bodies of Africa, as they plan and execute projects sponsored by LCMS World Mission. As regional business manager, she will live in Pretoria, South Africa, and travel to mission and project sites to support project progress and finances. Her work will encourage the local church leaders and their members, and allow the missionaries to concentrate on evangelism, human care ministries, and teaching about the love of God.

Coral was born in Texas and raised in Milwaukee, Wis. She graduated from Valparaiso University with a bachelor's degree in business administration – accounting. She joined the emerging “data processing” industry and worked to automate accounting, order processing, sales, and inventory systems. Eventually, she moved into system implementation and training, working with numerous industries worldwide. Coral earned a master's degree in religious education from Luther Seminary in Minnesota and worked for several years in children's ministry at churches in Hopkins, Minn. She also helped churches expand their Web page usage. In her free time, Coral enjoys gardening and looks forward to cultivating new and exotic African plants. She also looks forward to having new foods and spices to use in cooking.

Please pray for Coral as she prepares for this new adventure and learns about the many missionaries, projects, and national churches that she will be serving. Also, pray that she has safe travels and a smooth transition as she follows God's will for her in Africa. Pray for financial and prayer partners to come forward to support Coral's service in Africa. Finally, pray that Coral would retain the accounting process and system software information learned during training.
