

Official Adoption Agreement For the

Direct Support of Mission Project

Child's Cambodian Bible at our Lutheran School in Battambang

Project # 820-99601A

Cambodia is a very poor country that has been ravished by wars and fighting for many years. Since 1990, the people who were formally ruled by dictatorship, has now been opened to more freedom to worship as they wish. The country is nearly 98% percent

Buddhism with only 1% of the people Christian. English is now able to be taught as a foreign language. In most of these countries, they are able to use whatever means they need to teach and the Bible offers a wonderful way to bring the Love of their Savior to them.

One Bible can be purchased for $10.00.

I/We would like to provide _____ Bible (s) at $10.00 each for a total of $ _____
