NEW KAZAKHSTAN BIBLE PRINTED IN KAZAKHSTAN IN THEIR OWN LANGUAGE

Project #63400

The people of Kazakhstan, a former country of the Soviet Union, this country is located in the southeast part of Russia. There are many Muslim believers in this country, and the Bible is so badly needed by the people, and it must be printed in their own language.

This new project will provide the funding for the printing of 5000 of these new Bibles, which will be distributed by our Lutheran Missionaries in this country. For 70 years under the rule of the Communist Government, the people of this country could not have Bibles. Now they are hungry for the word of the Lord Jesus. They want to listen and learn more about a God who truly loves them and offers that goodness and grace that only can come from our Heavenly Father, who sent Jesus as our Savior.

This is one of the most URGENT needs of our missionaries in this part of the world right now. Your gift of $4.00 will purchase a Bible for these poorest of poor people. How many of these Bibles would you like to provide?
