

Hash 814

Last weekend we had the pleasure of two hashes.

On Saturday we had a bar hash, the hash were Downloader and Silent shoes. As usual this popular hash had a good turnout, with many making the effort to wear fancy dress. (Much to the amusement of the locals).

Has Scott been a naughty key and deserves a good spanking?

Silent shoes is obviously finding the excitement all too much and decided to have a quick nap whilst still managing to hang on to his beer.

=
for bed as soon as the hash is finished. Steve and Violy Carson appear to have lost their Pirat

Hash 815

22 hashers turned out for this one, some still suffering from hangovers because of the bar hash the previous night.

Hares for the day were Wolfie and Shotgun, The trail was relatively easy compared to Wo n h k g ø u " p q t c standards he must have been feeling a bit sorry for all the folks with hangovers. Three Virgins were welcomed to the hash a further four hashers were honoured with their new names. It was then time for the badges, 5 were dished out in total with the highest award of 750 miles going to the hare Wolfie. All the hashers had a great day out and enjoyed a good Chicken curry at the end courtesy of our cook for the day Portuguese hand pump (Tom Liddle) Who also provided the food the previous nights bar hash.

