Union Chapel Cub Scouts: The world of Cub Scouting encourages family closeness and provides a positive way for parent and child to spend quality time together. In this way, Cub Scouting is a program for the entire family! Scouting encourages physical fitness, personal achievement, leadership skill, and teamwork—all of which contributes to your son's ability to gain life skills, confidence and independence.

The Union Chapel M.B. Church Cub Scout Pack #156 is seeking families who enjoy the outdoors fun-like camping, fishing and hiking and those families seeking the thrills brought on by the challenges of the outdoors for the first time. If you are interested in the Science Technology Engineering & Math (S.T.E.M) program, then scouting is for you. Scouting can be a great part of your son's life cornerstone.

Again, Cub scouting encourages family bonding. Parent and child interaction; working together to achieve goals. Scouting will enrich both you and your son's lives!

If this seems as exciting to you as it is has been for us...Then scouting is for you. Join the Cub Scouts today and join in the fun!

Please contact Bro. David Stewart (Scout Master) and Bro. Carl Johnson (Cub Scout Master) or any other Cub or Boy Scout leader for more information.
