

THE CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH MISSION ENDOWMENT FUND SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM GUIDELINES

The Program

The Mission Endowment Fund (The Fund) of Christ Lutheran Church may annually award scholarships to eligible candidates using up to 40% of the Fund's annual disbursement. According to the bylaws of the congregation which govern the Fund, these scholarships are "for persons who show potential to develop as leaders of Christ's church, giving priority to members of the congregation. Priority will also be given to programs and places of study in the following order: 1) Seminary or professional training for rostered leaders or those pursuing rostered status; 2) Undergraduate or graduate studies that will lead to church vocations; 3) Undergraduate studies at a college of the ELCA; 4) Members who demonstrate leadership potential who are pursuing a degree."

Eligibility

Eligible candidates for scholarship awards from the fund should meet the following criteria:

- a. Candidates must be an active, worshipping member of a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) or its partners in full communion. Priority will be given to members of Christ Lutheran Church.
- b. Candidates must be enrolled or accepted at an accredited learning institution.
- c. Candidates who will be beginning undergraduate work must have a cumulative grade point average from high school of at least 3.25; candidates who have completed at least one term of undergraduate studies at their current institution must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0; candidates who are beginning undergraduate studies and have been out of high school for more than five years may supply copies of job performance evaluations in lieu of grade point average; candidates entering graduate studies must have a grade point from their undergraduate institution of at least 3.0. The above grade point averages are based on a 4.0 grading system. Scholastic achievement will be given strong consideration. The stated grade point averages are intended to be benchmarks that will be used in determining overall eligibility.
- d. Candidates must submit a completed scholarship application form provided by Christ Lutheran Church, along with all requested documentation. Applications must be received by August 1, 2009 for the 2009-2010 academic year.

Awards

Recipients of the scholarship will be notified by the Fund Committee. Scholarship awards will be sent to the financial aid office of the institution to which the recipient is enrolled.

Selection of the Recipients

Applications will be evaluated on the basis of: 1) demonstrated leadership potential; 2) active faith life; 3) academic achievement; 4) economic need. The Fund Committee will recommend recipients to the Congregation Council for approval. The Fund Committee will not discriminate in the selection of recipients based on race, sex, age, national origin, disability, ethnicity or veteran's status.
