

SUMMER 2011 WAS HOT AND DRY, BUT AT FAWN RIDGE THINGS WERE FUN AND EXCITING.

At Game Days every Wednesday, 6-12 kids played with board games and Legos and learned about taking turns and winning or losing with a good spirit.

Back Yard Bible Club was held each Sunday afternoon in July. We painted a sheet with scenes from the stories of Noah, Jonah, Jesus Calming a Storm, and Jesus and the Fishermen. Crafts, games, and stories told the Gospel message. An average of 8 kids attended with 10 volunteers.

Travelers and Travelers Too Bible study classes provided an ice cream social in June and a watermelon party in July. A hot dog party is scheduled for September 25.

baseball camp is scheduled in October.
