WHY SUNDAY SCHOOL?

Why Sunday School? Because it is an important time for the learning of biblical truths and practical Christian Living. Being in Sunday School results in me getting precious Christian education and the immersion of Bible Doctrines. This allows Christ to be formed in me.

- Jason Guo, Adult Class

Sunday School is very important, especially for young children, because it lays the foundation for Bible knowledge and doctrines. It's a time when we go in-depth on the study on specific books of the Bible, or character in the Bible, or events, from Creation, to the crossing of the red sea. It's the best time for questions to be asked, and doubts to be clarified.

- Serena Lee, Adult Class

首先我要感謝主, 讚美主.

主日学最重要是聆听主的话语,
唱敬拜神的诗歌和不停止祷告.

我感觉一切生活平静, 安乐.

这些都是主的恩賜.

- Mrs Lim, Mandarin Ministry

Why Sunday School

Through Sunday School, Giselle has learnt to pray and is more confident of praying, such as saying grace before meals and praying for Cheyenne. It is my prayer that Sunday School time will be a time of bonding between Giselle and her friends, which will set the foundation for her service to God when she comes of age. Cheyenne also enjoys watching the children during class. She gets to participate and learns by observing the children during class.

- Julie Law

Sunday school is a time for me to go in-depth into the Bible, to learn and draw wisdom from the men of God. It can be a challenge on some mornings to get up on time, but God's Word never fails to be more rewarding than the extra time in bed.

- Eugenia Ye, Adults' Class

Sunday School is the culmination of the previous week's sessions of quiet time, where diligent study of God's Word has been made. It is during Sunday School, in the beauty of the early morning, when the mind is freshest, and the week is dawning, where we can say with the Psalmist "in the morning will I direct my prayer to Thee...". It is in this time of studying of God's Word, together with those who have likewise been saved, where the believer has the best opportunity to share what has been learned thus far, and to learn from the experiences of the rest of the brethren as well.

WHY SUNDAY SCHOOL?

Attending Sunday school is a good way to build a close and intimate relationship with God as `...faith cometh by hearing and hearing the Word of the Lord' Romans 10:17. It is encouraging to my soul as like-faith Christians gather and learn together to grow in the knowledge of the Living Saviour.

-Kym Tit, Adult s' Class

Sunday school has helped me to understand the Bible better. When I do my quite time, I am able to appreciate God's Word and feel God's presence. There is no other way to grow unless we read and study God's Word. Waking up early on a Sunday morning is difficult, but we must persevere. The end result is rewarding. Now I enjoy reading the Bible more because I understand what I am reading and not just read it out of duty.

-Yap Mee Mee, Adults' Class

Attending Sunday school encourages me to dig deep into the Bible and learn more about God. As the world grows more complicated, it has become an important duty for Christians to know His Word, and to seek Him ever more closely. After all, if Christians don't know the Bible, should we expect others to? To walk His Way, we must first know His Way – and while it's not easy, we must try. Sunday school is that great starting point.

Why Sunday School?

Drenched and frequently drowned in the daily work load at the office does take a toll on my daily devotion and Bible study. For this reason, I find that Sunday School is the place to be on a Sunday morning. Why? Besides the freshness of the morning, and the light and easy mood of singing praises, the in-depth study into the Bible is really the most rewarding part of the Sunday School. We are currently expounding on the book of Job. Job was put through a life devastating journey but through God's power and love, Job emerged with great victory over all calamities. I am greatly encouraged knowing that God will not forsake me in my troubled times as he did not forsake Job. We are nearing the concluding chapters of the book and I am excited to understand the circumstances leading to Job's deliverance. There is so much to know about God and Sunday School offers that conducive environment to dwell on God's word so that I can walk a closer life with Him. – Vincent Chia

Sunday school is special to me because I started attending since I was kid. The actions songs and Bible stories are still engraved in my heart. More importantly I accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour through Sunday school. I hope that Sunday school will also be special to all the kids in our church and that the songs, the Bible stories, the colouring worksheets and craft work will be a constant reminder of their early walk with Jesus Christ in their lives.
