Daily Exercise Guide

Deuteronomy 28:2	Thank you Father for being a great Father who rewards obedience and disciplines poor behavior. I am committed to do the same with my children.
Hebrews 12: 7-10	Thank you Father for loving me enough to discipline me. Let me train my children correctly by discipline and not emotional response of punishment. As you show me grace in discipline, let me shows lots of grace and not wrath.
Matthew 18:6	Father, let me be a building block to my kids and not a stumbling block. Let me be the spiritual leader and example for kids of what building a life on Jesus looks like.

Significant Statements

A key principle in parenting: Reward good behavior – discipline poor behavior.

When parents do not discipline for poor behavior the blessing of a happy home is removed. Instead of joy- there is stress.

Love, affirm, forgive, and encourage your kids. Be a building block and not a stumbling block.

Stumbling Blocks

Building Blocks

7 Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as his children. For what children are not disciplined by their father? 9 Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of spirits and live! 10 They disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, in order that we may share in his holiness. Hebrews 12:7,9-10

If anyone causes one of these little ones—to stumble, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea.
Matthew 18:6
