

Networking

Sharing Experiences

Professional Development

Programs Sponsors

Hosted by

Committee

In this session, you will learn:

Capture institutional knowledge and processes

Increase efficiency and productivity

Add value to various Learning and Development programs

Promote a culture of continuous learning, growth, and improvement

Facilitator

EDDLD3
3LRRL
DDLRD
YRS

Binaifer is an educator, leadership coach, facilitator, and a story teller, with a diversified experience in various industries. She leads the learning and organizational development function at Community Bank System, nc., and recently earned a designation as Certified Talent Development Professional from the Association for Talent Development.

As a strategic learning development business partner, she relies on building trusting relationships with leaders, at all levels of the organization, to provide learning solutions, ensure workforce effectiveness, and support the succession planning objectives.

As an educator, she designs, facilitates, and implements customized leadership development programs that drive organizational performance, and strengthen the leadership pipeline.

Binaifer is passionate about serving others for the performing arts and storytelling to enable people on established a more meaningful connection with their work, fostering a continuous learning culture, and creating an environment where the best limits of potential are reached.

October 13
8:15-10:00am

Interactive Virtual Program

CNY ATD Member $25

Non-Member $40

Register at cnyatd.org