

From: franknordby@raleysexposed.com

Dear Edith-Beverly,

January 7, 2010

So, you go by the name "Beverly" while associated with Raley's. Then you go by the name "Edith" when you are associated with the Notary Public. I will say Tom Raley had a pretty good signature even at the age of 83 back in 1986 when you were witnessing as a Notary Public.

In 1992, you were publicly telling others that Charles Nordby was a liar, only worked for Raley's for one year and totally misquoted you in his book about Raley's. You should feel ashamed of yourself. It is unfortunate that Mrs. Nordby's husband walked through probably the most deceitful and dishonest group of people working for a sloppy and mismanaged chain of stores back in 1973.

If my deceased mother was still alive today, I would want her to go up to the front door of your house and slap your fraudulent face when you opened it. A phucking slap you deserve!

Sincerely, Frank Nordby

cc: Raley's; Sacramento Bee; Charles Collings; many others

To: Edith
Beverly Hardesty

8909 La Riviera Drive

Sacramento, CA 95826

I don't believe any of the nearly 9000 thieves my dad caught in his life were more dishonest than you liars and thieves at Raley's!

$100,000 REWARD TO PROVE HIM WRONG!

 EDITH B. HARDESTY
NOTARY PUBLIC
YOLO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA
My Commission Expires October 18, 1988

*Mrs.
Charles Nordby*

8909 La Riviera Drive, Sacramento, CA 95826