

Home Away from Home

Life is never certain, and you never know for sure,
What may be coming next, or what you will endure.

But thankfully, we know, that God has got us all,
As we journey through this life, and seek His gracious call.

His wisdom always guides, as step-by-step we go,
He helps to calm the anxious and helps us all to know.

That He is in control, and has us in His hand,
Wherever we may wander, it's all His sacred land.

As for me, I lost my job, and wondered what to do,
Then prayer led the way, and He brought me here to you.
A people after God's own heart, like David through-and-through,

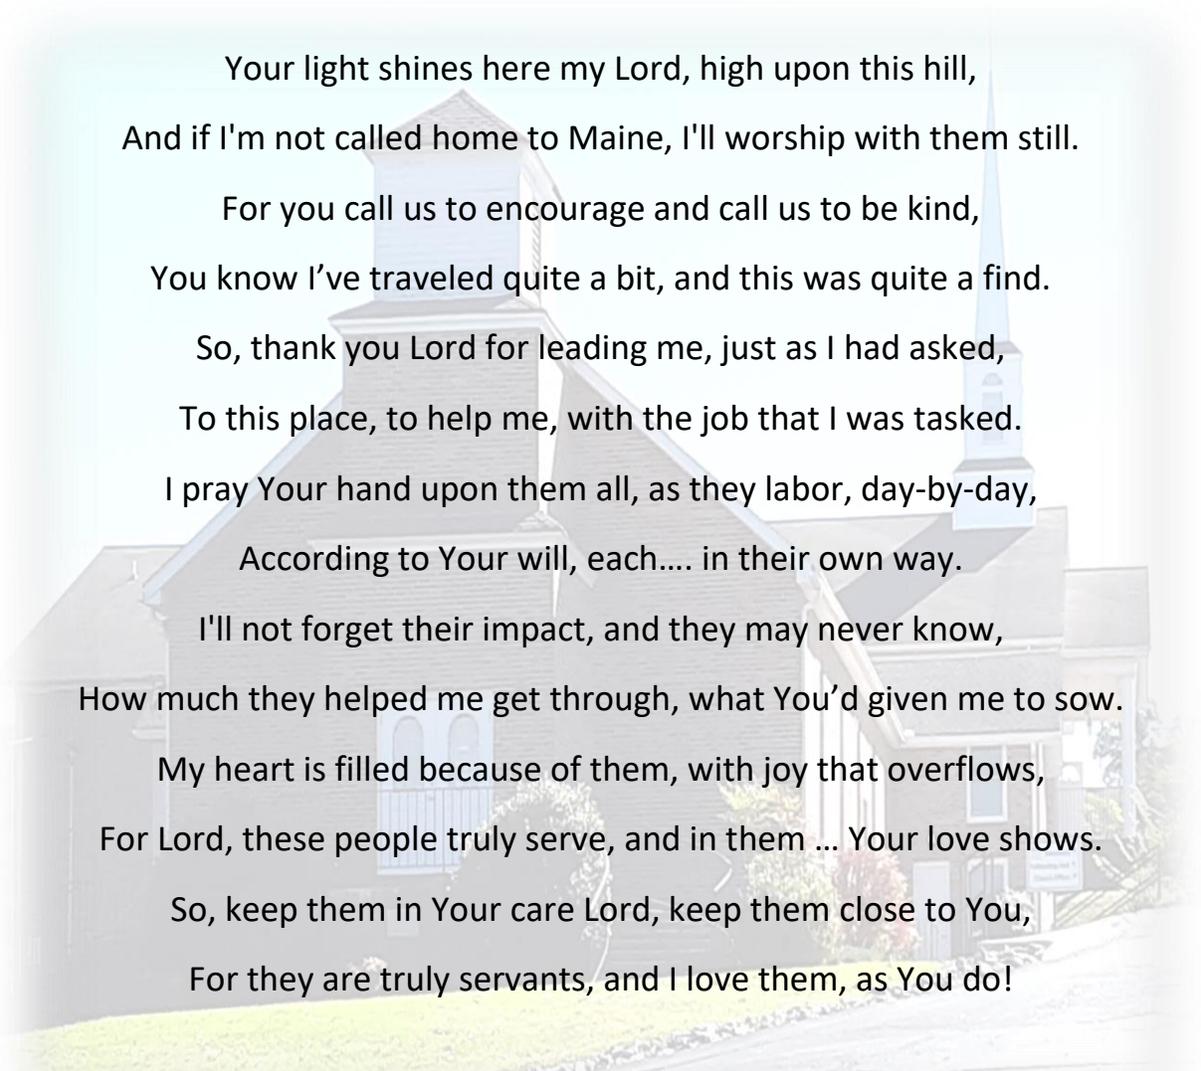

He drew me to His house, and in no time, I just knew,
That this is where I'd worship and this is where I'd stay,
To join you all in fellowship and join you all to pray.

What a loving group, our Lord assembled here,
With faithful leadership, to help you all to steer.

Their warm and welcome spirit, it greets you at the door,
And once you get inside, you'll love what there's in store.

His love and grace are talked about, His word just fills the air,
And His people gather 'round, with heart-felt words, they share.

They pray for one another, just as-we're-called to do,
So, when you leave this place, your spirit feels brand new.

Your light shines here my Lord, high upon this hill,
And if I'm not called home to Maine, I'll worship with them still.

For you call us to encourage and call us to be kind,
You know I've traveled quite a bit, and this was quite a find.

So, thank you Lord for leading me, just as I had asked,
To this place, to help me, with the job that I was tasked.
I pray Your hand upon them all, as they labor, day-by-day,
According to Your will, each.... in their own way.

I'll not forget their impact, and they may never know,
How much they helped me get through, what You'd given me to sow.

My heart is filled because of them, with joy that overflows,
For Lord, these people truly serve, and in them ... Your love shows.

So, keep them in Your care Lord, keep them close to You,
For they are truly servants, and I love them, as You do!

God bless you all at Mill Springs Baptist Church
