“All for the Good,” Genesis 50:20

Tonight we will use Genesis chapter 50 verse 20 as a launching pad for our study. We can't close out our study of the Book of Genesis without talking about the prophecies for the 12 sons, prophecies spoken by Jacob. But our focus tonight will be what I think is one of the greatest theological points made in scripture. The words spoken by Joseph in Genesis 50:20 after his brothers were afraid that we was going to retaliate after their father had died.

I. What is God's purpose in allowing evil to invade our lives?

2. Mature us...
3. Make us skillful...

II. How can evil deeds be good for us?

1. It's what we learn as we go through...
2. It's what we learn at the end...

III. How should we react when trials come?

1. With joy...
2. With faith, hope, love...
