BOOK OF RUTH: (Part 2)

December 6, 2023

"The Rendezvous of Romance and Redemption" Ruth 3, 4:17, 18-22; 1:16-17

INTRODUCTION

But Ruth said "...don't force me to leave you...your God is my God..." (MSG Bible). See Introductory notes from the November 8, 2023 lesson, BOOK OF RUTH: (PART 1).

Rendezvous: A meeting; appointment; coming together at an agreed (or particular) time and place; an arrangement (or habit) to meet someone especially secretly.

Redemption: (O. T.- Lev. 25:25-28) to be the next of kin; deliverance; paying the just demand in full.

1. The Important Link-The Great Divine Kinsman-Redeemer

a. The "Pattern"-Love factor, your character (must not be a petty, suspicious, and insecure person), covenant vows, trust in God, commitment, faithfulness to God, decisions to follow through! NOTE: we are all human, so we need to balance both our relationship to God and our emotions to determine the best course of action...be prayerfully intentional. The Holy Spirit's loving help is available!

b. The Rendezvous-Communing in Fellowship (Ruth 3)

The instruction of the "kinsman custom" (Lev. 25:25-28), will be a picture of guaranteed redemption for Ruth. The main idea: "REST at his feet!" Naomi encourages Ruth to "trust the process", which she is obedient to do. The "marriage duty" (or "law of family" redemption) is given in Deut. 25:5-10. Note: (N.T.) Luke 10:38-42.

c. The Messianic Genealogy of the (Divine) Boaz (Ruth 4)

The genealogy appearing at the end of Chapter 4 goes well beyond, and looks forward to the Divine Boaz, Christ (Gal.4:4-6). He is the true and greater Boaz. Boaz is a "type or shadow" of JESUS to help us see, understand, and come into alignment, with the character of The Lord.

CONCLUSION: The Book of Ruth teaches the Church about the great redemptive love of God, which is "stronger than death!" Naomi's heart was encased in bitterness with a real hard crust. However, the women loved each other, and were totally devoted to one another. The day came when Naomi opened her mouth to offer God some praise (Ruth 2:20). The acts, sovereign will, and lovingkindness of God are always at work for us in a lot of different ways. The greatest question the Holy Spirit is asking today...

"WHAT SORT OF PICTURE ARE YOU PAINTING WITH YOUR LIFE?"
